SCREENSHOT:

BRIEF REPORT: (POINT-WISE)

- 1). MongoDB has become one of the most powerful and used databases in the world. This database is also free and is classified as a NoSQL database program which uses JS Object Notation (JSON) like documents with Schemata
- 2). It is also very flexible, comparatively faster than any other DB, good for handling huge data and is the first choice for scaling
- 3). This online tutorial helps to learn about local databases and connecting to cloud services.
