BRIEF REPORT: (POINT-WISE)

- 1). Provide what the parties' rights and obligations are in the event that a further, formal agreement is not reached. Important matters to address are the parties' rights to terminate the letter of intent (and the consequences of termination), payments to be made to the contractor, use of intellectual property on an ongoing basis, and dispute resolution.
- 2). Not surprisingly, mobile users are increasingly relying on smart phones to store and handle personal data. Inside the phone, we can find current (or past) geo-location information smart phones about the user, phone call logs of placed and received calls, an address book with various contact information, as well as cached emails and photos taken with the built-in camera.
- 3). Outgoing communication can put an application at risk of Broadcast theft (data theft, result modification, and Activity and Service hijacking. Incoming communication can put an application at risk of malicious Activity and Service launches and Broadcast injection.
